Conflict of Interest Policy

Statement

No director, employee, or committee member of DIVA shall use his or her position or the knowledge gained therefrom in such a manner that is a conflict between the interest of DIVA or any of its affiliates and his or her personal interests.

Each director, employee, and committee member has a duty to place the interest of DIVA foremost in any dealings with DIVA and has a continuing responsibility to comply with the requirements of this policy.

The conduct of personal business between any director, employee, or committee member and DIVA and any of its affiliates is prohibited unless first fully disclosed and then only if approved by the Board.

Board members, employees, and committee members may not obtain for themselves, their relatives, or their friends a material interest of any kind from their association with DIVA.

If a director, employee, or committee member has an interest in a proposed transaction with DIVA in the form of a significant personal financial interest in the transaction, or in any organizations involved in the transaction, or holds a position as trustee, director, or officer in any such organization, s/he must make full disclosure of such interest before any discussion or negotiation of such transaction.

Any director, employee, or committee member who is aware of a potential conflict of interest with respect to any matter coming before the Board or any committee is obligated to disclose such a conflict of interest to the entire Board.

Disclosure

To implement this policy, directors, employees, and committee members of DIVA will submit annual reports on a form approved by the Board, and if not previously disclosed, will disclose any conflict or potential conflict before any additional board or committee action is taken.

These annual reports will be reviewed by the officers of the Board, who will attempt to resolve any actual or potential conflict(s), and, in the absence of resolution, refer all such matters to the full Board.
